

Born in Valencia in November of 1965, Pedro C. Cavadas Rodriguez completed his degree in Medicine in 1989 at the University of Valencia and he was a resident in the La Fe Hospital in Valencia, where he became a specialist in Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery in 1995. He got his PhD degree at the University of Valencia in 1995.

Since January 2011 he commands the Hospital of Manises' Microsurgical and Reconstructive Surgery Unit.

M.D. is dedicated to reconstructive surgery since 1994. Along with his 3-surgeons team he is carrying out about 1.800 surgeries per year using the most state-of-the-art treatments so as to offer solution to patients rejected from surgery or patients having very difficult to repair disabilities.

The Pedro Cavadas Foundation is a non-profit organization which aim is, as Dr. Cavadas says, "to help those who can't choose and also to give in return all of what has been given to us".